

105.1590
Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 312.

312/undercover

can cleaner, and general handy-man about the Court House, and that once in a while he goes out and serves warrants for the Judge over there. Kirby goes around posing as a detective, but he is not. The bunch is watching him and some day when he is posing as a detective they are going to get him for posing as an officer. Clifford Hayes left the company of Operative and Danny Kenny at about 6 p.m.

Danny Kenny related to Operative, how two or three days after the crime he (Danny Kenny) drove a man home in his car to Millstone, and that it was between 1.30 & 2 a.m. in the morning. Danny Kenny told Operative, that while riding along in conversation with this man, the name of Gorsline, was mentioned. The man who was riding with Danny Kenny told Danny how Gorsline tried to insult his niece or daughter. This man told Danny Kenny that he would not put it passed Gorsline, to do a thing like the crime. He further told Operative, that it is known that Gorsline, ran around with Mrs. Mills, and that he liked her a whole lot. Danny Kenny then told Operative that a number of people know that Gorsline, was up at the Phillips Farm on the night of the crime. Danny Kenny advised Operative that a close friend of his had just returned from Somerville, and told him that they intended to indict Ralph Gorsline and Mrs. Hall, but that it was Gorsline they were after the most. Upon one occasion, a reporter called at Gorsline's house and Gorsline came to the door and informed the reporter that Ralph Gorsline had moved away, and that no one knew where he had moved.

At about 10.50 p.m. Operative met Mr. DeM. at the railroad station, and after relating to him the occurrences of the day, Operative proceeded to his room and discontinued.

ND COUPON B
MADE IN U.S.